Chandigarh: BJP, Congress, INLD and even JJP have failed on this count. When it comes to fielding women as candidates, no major party in Haryana has given 33% representation to women — a law that will be implemented in the state's assembly from 2029.

Already passed by the Haryana legislative assembly, a bill related to giving 33% representation to women in the state assembly from 2029 has already been passed.

Haryana has given 50% reservation to women in panchayati raj institutions.

Both Congress and BJP have even dropped prominent women leaders in the elections. BJP dropped minister Seema Trikha, former minister Kavita Jain and few others. Congress also dropped upcoming leader Chitra Sarwara, Sudha Bhardwaj, former CPS Sharda Rathore, former mayor Upinderjit Kaur Walia and many others

Figures show that Congress has fielded the highest number of women — 12. It is followed by BJP (10), AAP (11), and INLD-BSP alliance (nine).

Both Congress and BJP have even dropped prominent women leaders in the elections. BJP dropped minister Seema Trikha, former minister Kavita Jain and few others. Congress also dropped upcoming leader Chitra Sarwara, Mahila Congress president Sudha Bhardwaj, former CPS Sharda Rathore, former mayor Upinderjit Kaur Walia and many others. Former minister Savitri Jindal is another prominent been dumped by BJP.

"Like others, I too had an aspiration of contesting polls, especially from the Mahila Congress quota. I don't blame my high command, as they have their own parameters. Hence, we have to accept the decision of party high command. Hence, now we shall work for the party," said Bhardwaj, the president of Haryana State Mahila Congress.

She questioned how the party planned to follow the rule in 2029.

Except for Bhardwaj and Seema Trikha, a majority of women or their spouses have rebelled to contest elections against party candidates as in Ranjeeta Mehta, secretary of Haryana welfare council will always be a

"We have won and we have a go," she said.

Haryana has a history of fielding women in elections. Even elections for civic panchayati raj institutions there could be representation of women.

A close look into the history of Haryana revealed that as of now, only 575 women have been elected as MLAs in Haryana out of 575 who have been
